

Communications & Marketing Internship

A summer opportunity for a creative communicator interested in storytelling, engagement and sharing the people, culture and impact of Tuaropaki.

Location	Taupō / Mōkai	Duration	November 2026 – March 2027 (flexible depending on placement)
Type	Paid summer internship	Eligibility	Tuaropaki owners and uri

Who we're looking for

- Enrolled in tertiary study or a recent graduate.
- Strong written and verbal communication skills, with the ability to tailor communications for different audiences.
- Creative thinker with an interest in design and storytelling.
- Experience using Microsoft Office and preferably Canva and/or Adobe Creative Suite.
- Strong organisational and time-management skills.
- Proactive and able to work independently and collaboratively.
- Strong attention to detail and proofreading capability.
- Interest in Māori organisations, community engagement and telling stories that celebrate people, culture and impact.

About the programme

Our internships are designed to strengthen your connection to Tuaropaki, build capability through meaningful work experience and mentoring, and give you the opportunity to contribute to real work across the Trust.

This role would suit someone who enjoys creating, communicating and finding engaging ways to tell stories.

How to apply

Submit an Expression of Interest by Monday 14 September 2026.

Complete the online EOI form and tell us about yourself, your connection to Tuaropaki, your experience and what you hope to gain from the internship.