

Legal Internship

A summer opportunity for a law student to gain exposure to legal work within a Māori-owned business and commercial environment.

Location	Taupō / Mōkai	Duration	November 2026 – March 2027 (flexible depending on placement)
Type	Paid summer internship	Eligibility	Tuaropaki owners and uri

Who we're looking for

- At least two years into a law degree, with preference for applicants further through their studies.
- Proactive, curious and willing to learn.
- Works collaboratively as part of a team.
- Interest in business and commercial environments.
- Strong attention to detail.
- Sound research and writing skills.

About the programme

Our internships are designed to strengthen your connection to Tuaropaki, build capability through meaningful work experience and mentoring, and give you the opportunity to contribute to real work across the Trust.

This internship provides an opportunity to build practical experience alongside your legal studies and gain exposure to the wider operations of Tuaropaki.

How to apply

Submit an Expression of Interest by Monday 14 September 2026.

Complete the online EOI form and tell us about yourself, your connection to Tuaropaki, your experience and what you hope to gain from the internship.